“Comfort & Joy”

Give yourself a gift for Advent and to help prepare for the Christmas season through reflection, music and communal prayer!

Steve Angrisano is an internationally recognized Catholic composer, presenter, and passionate music missionary, 25 years for Oregon Catholic Press. Steve’s first love and vocation is his wife Jenni and their three children and four grandchildren. His desire for his family, and for each of us as well, is simply this; to live every day as a compelling case for Jesus.

A veteran musician, composer, and keynote speaker, Steve has been featured at ten World Youth Days, Emceed 3 National Catholic Youth Conferences (NCYC 05, 07, 09), in 2021 was part of the main stage general sessions, serving as the Choir Director for the Youth Scola, and has been a featured speaker several times, including the 2025 conference. He has served as a Emcee when Pope John Paul II visited St. Louis in 1999. Steve has presented primary talks, music and workshops at the Pro-life Rally in Washington DC, Franciscan University Conferences, The National Pastoral Musicians Conference, National Conference on Catholic Youth Ministry, Los Angeles Religious Education Conference and countless other events.

Steve has a Master of Arts in Theology as well as a graduate specialization certificate in Liturgical Sacramental Theology from Saint Meinard Seminary and School of Theology. His MISSION is to serve the body of Christ through a passionate and faithful expression. In word and song, of our Roman Catholic Tradition that is both theologically sound and spiritually impactful. Steve uses his unique blend of humor, story, and song to achieve this.
